VISIT NESS BOTANIC GARDENS

South Wirral

Ness is the home of more than 15,000 types of plants from all over the world, and more than 600 species of birds, mammals, bees, butterflies and other insects.

The garden calendar begins with snowdrop displays in February. From early summer, the Victorian-styled vegetable garden and 100m of herbaceous borders burst into life. Autumn brings fabulous shows of berries and colour from the garden's varied collections of trees, including the beautiful bark and foliage of birches and maples.

On-site, there is a garden kitchen cafe which serves a variety of snacks, light lunches, meals, cakes and drinks and a gift shop.

The University of Liverpool owns the garden, a world-renowned centre for plant research.
